Her Divine Destiny... A Global Mission

A Fond Remembrance:

We remember Charlton Heston with the deepest admiration. He stands as one of the greatest Movie Stars of all time. ("Ben-Hur" won 11 Academy Awards and his portrayal of Moses in "The Ten Commandments" is legendary.) We are honored that he graced our past "Clientele Magazine" Cover with his lovely wife Lydia. What a privilege to have known him, and to have had them both attend when JFK University awarded me as a Woman of Achievement several years ago.

sweeping not only the nation, but the Globe. With this hurried pace, comes added stress and more demands on our time. We sleep less, skip meals, and often feel like we aren't doing enough. Stress can deplete nutrients, and increase our risk for health problems. It can also wreak havoc on our skin. Since the skin is the largest organ of the body it needs a constant supply of nutrition, both inside from a good diet & supplements, and outside from topically applied nutrients that help it withstand the effects of free radical attack.

I have seen thousands of skin care products considered the finest from around world, and I am proud to say that Clientele is at the forefront of the latest anti-aging technology. What we have is found nowhere else, especially our patented Sacred Lotus Seed revered for its ability to resist aging and live 1000 years. Many Clientele formulas contain the highest concentration possible of over 20 active ingredients. We combine these precious botanicals, vitamins, and peptides in our own laboratories and manufacture each product ourselves. This is why Clientele formulas produce such dramatic results.

Dear Friend,

In this Issue, we honor Laurie Crouch, a beautiful spirit who is destined to do great things with her life. Her angelic mission in Uganda to help children and her work with her husband Matt in Hollywood will bring hope and joy to so many.

We also salute Valeria Rosenbloom and Daphna Ziman, dynamic women who are angels to children with special needs. Valeria has raised millions to help children with neurodevelopmental disorders, and vows to support research to find the cause. Daphna has taken her plea to help foster children all the way to China and rallied the hottest Hollywood Stars to the cause on Oscar Night. Each of these women is on-the-go, yet they manage to look terrific.

Being jet-set has become part of life. In the last year I have been to Europe 6 times. In London, Paris, Vienna, even Prague, women seem busier than ever. The world is shrinking, and trends are Plenty of skin care products claim to fight aging, but few deliver results long term. Clientele stands the test of time. You can always tell a Clientele Woman (and Man). Their skin has a healthy youthful glow. Best of all, they look younger than their age. (Pat Boone and his lovely wife Shirley are good examples!) The real benefits of good skin care and proper nutrition are long term. By nourishing your body inside and out, and using plenty of antioxidants, with targeted peptides and powerful botanicals you can stall the effects of time and stay younger longer... and that's exactly what Clientele does.

Blessings,

Pat Riley

Founder & CEO Since 1979

CHILDREN UNITING NATIONS

Billboard Awards Night Party Raised Both Funds and Awareness for Efforts to Better the Lives of Foster Children
9th Annual Awards held at Beverly Hilton Hotel, CA

Children Uniting Nations (CUN) raised a half million dollars for its foster children assistance program as the group partnered with the recording industry publication "Billboard" to present CUN's 9th Annual Awards Celebration, Dinner and Concert on the night of the Academy Awards. CUN is the most widely recognized mentoring program in the United States, achieving mentoring and other benefits for tens of thousands of foster children. Hosted by Tommy Davidson, Fox News' Christine Devine and CUN founder and chair Daphna Ziman, the star studded event included Oscar viewing with a gourmet dinner, Cirque du Soleil performances from Line 1 throughout the evening, a very special performance by Jil Aigrot, the voice of Edith Piaf in "La Vie en Rose", and an evening of entertainment and dancing to world-renowned recording acts.

Clientele would like to honor the stars and VIP's who illuminated the occasion, showing their support and helping to make a difference in the lives of foster children through CUN.

CUN is a proactive organization created to bring attention to the plight of at-risk and foster youth. The goal is to reach as many children in out-of-home care by offering role model support, guidance, a sense of community and promoting the importance of an education. Inspired by their annual program "Day of the Child," CUN makes mentoring more accessible to children living in foster care and has created a mentoring program to be administered in every city nationwide. Daphna Ziman, founder of Children Uniting Nations, is currently in the last phase of securing the creation and construction of sister villages for young girls in China as well as a Foster Children's Village in Los Angeles. China is acknowledging the need for a permanent service that will provide assistance to abandoned girls. "This is a historical 'front page' event. It has taken us five years of working diligently with the Chinese government, ending in a final commitment from the president of China, who has agreed to be the volunteer chair of CUN Asia" says Ziman.

In The Spotlight Valeria Rosenbloom

Valeria and her adoring husband Mike are Founding Board Members of the Unicorn Children's Foundation (UCF); an international non-profit organization dedicated to education, awareness, and research on behalf of children with disorders, such as ADD (attention deficit disorder), Dyslexia, and Autism. UCF was founded in 1995 by Mike's son, Dr. Mark Rosenbloom. Born in Montreal, Valeria is a dynamo who is determined to accomplish her goal – to help children with many levels of communication and learning disorders. Her dear friend Juliette Egazui, also on the board of Unicorn, describes Valeria as Intelligent, Charismatic and extremely Optimistic!

Valeria exudes health, vitality and energy. No doubt her training helped her stay on the road to fitness. Valeria graduated with honors with a Bachelor of Science in Physical Therapy in 1974 from McGill University. She served as head of Physiotherapy in Orthopedics at Montreal General Hospital. She has been Health and Fitness Editor to "Bridal Guide Magazine" since 1994. She is currently the Chairman of the Fund Raising Committee of the Friends of the Unicorn.

The 2008 10th Anniversary Fund Raising Gala "Key to the Golden Palace," honoring Unicorn Grand Ambassadors Valeria and Mike was held at the beautiful Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach. The Club's owner Donald Trump applauded the group for their efforts to help children and for being one of the first to enjoy his $50 million dollar expansion—his palace style Ballroom. The Gala brings support from an international "Who's Who" every year. (I attended with my friend Pat Boone, and Lady Blanka Rosentiel and like everyone else we had a wonderful time!)

Most important is that UCF is destined to have a major impact on a global problem. Over the course of the last 10 years, there has been a steady and startling increase in the number of children diagnosed with neurodevelopmental disorders with no known cause. Three children are diagnosed every hour with a developmental disorder... nearly 30,000 children per year. Autism, the fastest-growing and most severe disorder has more than quadrupled... 1 child in 150 will be diagnosed with Autism. Dyslexia affects 1 in 5 children. 4.4 million have been diagnosed with ADD¹. These types of disorders have a profound effect upon the children, their families, and the community. Finding how to prevent them and help families cope with these challenges is the mission of Unicorn.

Hope, Faith & Love

A Global Mission

By: Pat Riley

Clientele is honored to name Laurie Crouch as our Woman of Achievement. Not only is she “movie star” gorgeous, she is a woman on the move, making things happen with her husband Matt Crouch. Laurie is a sweet spirit full of grace, love and faith. There is an aura of peace that surrounds her, and you feel that you’re in the presence of someone very special. Laurie was raised in Tucson, Arizona. When she was 17, her parents, who were in the ministry, took a church in Ames, Iowa. It was then that her divine destiny began to take shape.

Laurie told us, “I used to visit my Grandparents in Phoenix a lot, and TBN had built their second TV station there. My grandparents would watch TBN every night, which was hosted by its founders Jan and Paul Crouch. One night, my Grandmother looked at me and said, “the Crouch’s have two sons, I pray you meet Matthew.” When we went to a camp meeting in Tulsa, on the last night, I got into the elevator with Jan Crouch. She asked if she had met me, and how old I was, and then surprised me by saying, “I would very much like you to meet my son Matt.” We met that evening. Jan put our hands together, gave him a $100 bill, and said now you two go out and get to know each other. Matt told me she had never done this before. Matt and I had a wonderful time and talked for 3 hours. The next day he went back to California, and I went back to Ames. On Monday, Matt phoned and his Mother asked to speak with my Mom to invite me to accompany their family to St. Kitts to check out a new television station for TBN. On Saturday, I met them in Florida, spent two weeks with them in St. Kitts, and Matt and I fell in love.”

After getting married Matt and Laurie worked at TBN until 1992, when they left and started Gener8Xion Entertainment and moved to Hollywood. Laurie explained, “They say whatever entertains you rules you. They also say as Hollywood goes, so goes the nation. Matt and I haven’t appreciated where Hollywood has gone in the last years. Our company is making movies that give uplifting messages of hope.”

One of their first movies was a fabulous epic of the Bible Story of Esther, called “One Night with the King”. “I love this story,” says Laurie, “Esther was an orphan, a minority, a little Jewish girl growing up in Persia (Iraq/Iran area today). She had all the odds against her and God chose her to save her people. We want people to know, God does have a plan for your life,” said Laurie.

God’s plan for them included 2 beautiful boys. Caylan is now 18 and Cody is 14. Laurie chose to home-school their sons after the 6th grade so they could travel with them.

Matt believes strongly in the importance of diet and exercise. Convincing Laurie to join him in his daily run took some time. “We started off walking 4 miles real fast. It completely changed the shape of my body. I’ve heard exercisers say, once you get into it—you just have to do it. Now I look forward to it,” explained Laurie.

At a petite 90 pounds, Laurie’s greatest strength comes from her faith. After traveling to Uganda and seeing the suffering children, Laurie vowed with Matt to help make a difference. Laurie says, “My dream right now is help Uganda’s wonderful First Lady Janet Kataha Museveni to build the first children’s hospital in Uganda. We are just in the beginning stages,” she said.

Laurie’s mission... “There is something much greater than we are watching over us, guiding us and loving us. Everyone has a destiny and a purpose, and to fulfill that purpose is the greatest thing you can do. I believe ours is to spread a message of hope, faith and love.”

The Sacred
Lotus Seed

Clientele's Age-Defying
Beauty Secret

Thousands of years ago Egyptian Pharaohs and Queens knew the potent powers of the mystical Sacred Lotus.

In Buddhism the Sacred Lotus symbolizes purity and longevity.

But nothing surprised UCLA Scientists more than when a 1,288 year old Lotus Seed sprouted after 4 days.

How did the Sacred Lotus stand the test of time?

Upon further investigation it was found that the seeds contained an enzyme called MT (L-isoapartylmethyltransferase), which may help repair kinks that periodically appear in strands of proteins.

Youthifying Breakthrough.

When Clientele Dermatologists tested an extract of the Sacred Lotus Seed in their skin care formulas, they were amazed at what they found. It made the skin look dramatically younger, radiant and more beautiful!

IN A CLINICAL STUDY, OVER 91% OF THOSE USING THE LOTUS FORMULAS FOUND THEIR SKIN LOOKED MUCH YOUNGER!

Of all the skin's changes brought about by age, few are as dramatic as the LOSS OF ELASTICITY. The skin stretches less and recovers more slowly.

How Good is your Skin's Elasticity?

Take this test to find out. Pull up the skin on the back of your hand. Let go. Watch how long it takes to regain its shape. The faster it recovers, the more elasticity your skin has. Estro-Lift®

The Science of Revitalizing Beauty®

Dermatologists know that certain changes occur as we age. Hormone levels decrease. The skin thins. Cellular renewal rate slows. Skin becomes fragile and produces less oil. Wrinkles appear.

Every second your body is being depleted of moisture and nutrients vital for the skin. As we lose the vital compounds of youth, the skin craves what it is missing. That's why Estro-Lift® is so important.

Estro-Lift® is specifically developed for women over 40. Each formula contains our exclusive ingredient, Sacred Lotus Seed Extract, combined with over 20 natural skin beautifiers... Vitamins, Antioxidants, powerful natural Phytoestrogens from Soy and Estrokin® – a newly discovered plant extract from Asia, firming Botanicals, and nanospheres infused with Youthifying Factors. Your skin responds to these wonderful ingredients with amazing results. Enjoy the compliments on how beautiful you look!

Use Estro-Lift® as often as you need to get the results you desire. The older you are, the more you will appreciate the benefits of what Estro-Lift® can do to beautify the look of your complexion.

The Empress
Elizabeth of Austria
1837-1898

Charming, enchanting, and fascinating, Empress Elizabeth “Sisi” of Austria lived during the 19th Century. Recently, over 109 years after her death, I visited the magnificent castles and palaces in Vienna, Austria where she spent her years. The Empress was as intelligent as she was extravagant, a fairy tale princess, a liberated woman and dedicated to maintaining her beauty. An avid exerciser, she followed a regular routine in her private suite of the Palace to keep her tiny waist and stay in shape for her famed athletic horse riding skills.

She was extremely proud of her thick, lustrous, ankle length chestnut hair, which took 4 hours each day to dress and arrange. Every 3 weeks, an entire day was spent washing her hair with Henna, Cognac and raw eggs. Periodically, she would bathe in olive oil, or her bathwater would contain a mixture of milk and honey heated to a warm temperature, very reminiscent of the bathing rituals of Cleopatra. Sisi’s legendary beauty was the result of hours of cosmetic application. Her beauty treatments took hours, and the preparations she applied to herself were sometimes extreme. The beautiful skin of her face and décolleté owed much to a mixture of glycerin, gelatin and rose oil. She would also apply a face mask of crushed strawberries when they were in season. She disapproved of heavy perfume; merely having her magnificent hair sprinkled with essences composed of Violet Blossoms, alcohol and purified water. Wouldn’t she be thrilled with the fast and effective Clientele anti-aging formulas we have today!
