Clientele Interview with Jean Ahern Lubin

Dear Friend,

As I begin my 30th year since I started Clientele, I am even more excited to bring you the latest technology to help you stay healthy and youthful until you are age 100 at least!

For 3 decades we have been stressing the importance of nutrients. Good nutrition can help nourish your skin, hair and nails from within. And those same nutrients and antioxidants applied topically can help your skin stay healthy and protected from free radicals and collagen breakdown. The proof is in the results. Our Clientele look younger than their age. Jean Lubin, our beautiful Clientele Woman is a perfect example. I first met Jean as a Clientele customer 14 years ago, and she looks even more beautiful today! It is as if she put "aging on hold".

We can't stop the aging process, but if we can slow it down, and look and feel younger than our years, we have done something wonderful.

I want to thank Dr. Victor Witten, the brilliant Dermatologist, who first worked with me in the 70's developing Clientele formulas. Special thanks to Dr. Pratt, Dr. Ballin, Dr. Khemka, Dr. Christakis, Dr. Vogt, Dr. Hsia, and the other anti-aging experts who have collaborated in developing the very best formulas through the years. Together we pioneered oil free moisturizers, antioxidants in skin care to protect against free radicals, CoQ-10 in skin care and many breakthroughs adopted by the entire industry.

Perhaps the most startling discovery we have made is that our patented Sacred Lotus Seed ingredient, which naturally can resist aging and live over 1000 years, can make the skin look dramatically younger. Clinical studies show it decreases the appearance of wrinkles by 50% in 4 weeks. Once you try our Clientele Lotus formulas you know the results. You see them in your mirror. Best of all, I promise you this... the longer you use Clientele, the younger you will look for your age.™

We always love to hear your success stories. So please send us your photos, stories, and suggestions. We look forward to the next 30 years helping you to look and feel your best.

Have a Wonderful Year!

Clientele Interview with Jean Ahern Lubin

by Pat Riley

Pat: Hi Jean. I have wanted to get you on the cover of my magazine for... over a decade now. I'm so glad it finally worked out.

Jean: Yes, and with each passing decade the results of using Clientele become even more dramatic!

Pat: I know that, like me, you are near the half-century mark... but, I'll be darned if I can see even one wrinkle on your face.

Jean: I know... it's starting to get weird. Everyone accuses me of having had a face lift, or Botox*... or the latest injection du jour...but, this is the face God gave me... no nips, tucks, or anything else, I swear... except for fifteen years of Clientele products, of course!

Pat: Let's give your fun-loving husband of twenty-three years, Ed Lubin, some credit too. Laughter keeps you young!

Jean: Yes, and I've never smoked, I very rarely have an occasional glass of wine, I always stay out of the sun... and being happy and loved by the greatest husband in the world is definitely good for your looks!

Pat: Jean, you have had such an interesting life. Your career began as a ballet dancer in New York.

Jean: Right, I was on scholarship at American Ballet Theater as a teenager... then went on to dance with various ballet companies around the world. Injuries forced me to stop dancing, but I had been in an ad campaign for Danskin, and from that, modeling agent Eileen Ford wanted to sign me. I decided to finish college first... and that was when I entered the Miss America Pageant.

Pat: You were Miss Illinois, and second runner-up to Miss America and you also won the talent award?

Jean: I had just left a professional career as a ballerina... so, I sort of had an unfair advantage there. It was a great experience. The scholarship money I earned paid for college... and I received the rest in cash upon graduation. So, that was a nice little nest egg which allowed me to pursue a modeling and acting career... without waiting tables! After college, I headed back to New York and started working for Ford Modeling Agency, which was an incredible experience. Eventually, the modeling jobs took me to Milan and Paris where I became an Elite model.

Pat: While you lived in Paris you modeled for top fashion magazines like Vogue, right?

Jean: Yes. French Vogue, Italian Bazaar, Elle, and many others. I was fortunate to work for some of the most famous photographers in the world. Even real legends, like Horst. I saw the world. Then, I started doing movies in France, and thought it would make more sense to go back to America and act in English, instead of French.

Pat: So, that's what brought you to Los Angeles where you starred in countless national commercials, films, TV series... and had a regular part on The Young and the Restless.

Jean: Yes, Dennis Cole played my fiancée... terrific guy. I just saw him featured in your Clientele Magazine recently.

Pat: I look at photos of you nearly thirty years ago in the Miss America Pageant... and I actually think you look better now! Of course I give Clientele the credit for your youthful looks.

Jean: I agree.

Pat: What is your life like today?

Jean: I am the mother of three teenagers, and live with my husband, Ed, in a lovely home just a few miles from Jean still keeps on her toes today!

"Ballet is a very big part of my life. It is a real thrill to see my youngest daughter, Alison, who just turned sixteen, following in my footsteps as a ballerina."

the Pacific Ocean and Malibu. Besides acting, I teach ballet at one of the finest ballet schools in the country, California Dance Theatre. Every year we put on several performances, including The Nutcracker. I am proud to tell you that my youngest daughter, Alison, just danced the role of "Clara" in the Nutcracker. I love teaching ballet now, and hope that I am inspiring this younger generation of dancers.

Pat: You also write and paint?

Jean: Yes, I've written and illustrated several children's books, including Train Up a Child and The Herrington Teddy Bears' series; The Adventures of Harry and Hannah. There is also interest in several of my screenplays from some of the major studios here in Hollywood. Painting is also one of my great joys. It's like taking a mini-vacation.

Pat: Well, Jean, you certainly are a great advertisement for the benefits of staying active, fit, and healthy... and looking eternally young!

Jean: People still tell me I don't look old enough to have teenagers. In fact, I was recently carded buying a bottle of wine! When people ask me my secret, I just tell them Clientele... I wouldn't be without it.

Pat: As you look back on your life, any words of wisdom?

Jean: None of us get through this life without trials... but, everything that happens is for a reason. Just remember, in the midst of it all, to give thanks and know that you are not alone. If you love Him, God really does make everything work together for the good. Also, try to see the humor in things. Laughter is very healing!

Pat: Bottom line to looking beautiful at any age?

Jean: Read your Bible every day, while soaking in a vat of Elastology moisturizer.

Is There an Effective and Natural Alternative to Botox®?

Believe it or not, Botox® and collagen injections are not the only ways to reduce those expression lines. Scientists have discovered that when a group of nutrients, called aminopeptides, is applied to the skin, you can actually reduce the look expression lines.

Why We Get Wrinkles

Beneath the surface of the skin is collagen, which is needed to maintain young looking, firm skin. When production of collagen is impaired or the collagen is damaged due to the aging process, smoking, nutritional deficiencies, or sun exposure, wrinkling occurs. In an effort to replace lost or damaged collagen, people have turned to collagen lotions, which unfortunately, have proved to be ineffective. That's because collagen molecules are simply too large to penetrate the skin's surface. Collagen injections became very popular, but this expensive procedure only offered a temporary solution.

In addition to loss of collagen, we also get lines from repeated facial expressions. The face is involved in thousands of muscle movements per day that contract the skin. Laughing, thinking, worrying, and squinting all play a role in causing wrinkles. Over time the lines tend to deepen. Women tend to be more expressive than men so the lines that appear between your brows (glabellar lines) become more visible with age. If you frown a lot, are intense, angry, or annoyed, it shows on your face with deeper glabellar lines—another good reason to get in the habit of being calm, relaxed and happy. But that's not always easy to do with today's stressful lifestyle.

The Truth About Botox®

Botox® seemed like a long awaited solution. It worked by helping to reduce the contractions of the muscles that cause those persistent frown lines that have developed over time. It does smooth the lines, but to work, a neurotoxin must be injected, the results are temporary and injections have to be repeated periodically. In addition, according to the manufacturer, in some cases, side effects may occur including headache, respiratory infection, flu syndrome, temporary eyelid droop and nausea.

Clientele®

After a tremendous amount of research, Clientele® succeeded in creating LineX™, a safe, natural, and economical alternative to relaxing the look of expression lines. The patent-pending formula contains newly discovered aminopeptides. These are tiny chains of protein building blocks that have been clinically proven to reduce the depth of wrinkles caused by facial expressions and to stimulate skin cells responsible for helping to support collagen synthesis. LineX™ also contains Hyaluronic Acid (HA) which can hold 1000 times its weight in water. The combination of Peptides, HA, Sacred Lotus and antioxidants produce dramatic visible results. Obviously no cream will be as effective as a medical procedure requiring repeated injections, however, new peptide technology may offer significant improvements. LineX™ may be just the natural answer you've been seeking to reduce the look of your expression lines.

68% noted a reduction in depth of lines and wrinkles.

BEFORE

AFTER 4 WEEKS

Dear Clientele,

Your last issue of Clientele Magazine had the headline challenge "Does your face match your neck?", I was low on my other cream so I decided why not give Neck Envy a try. Being over 60 years old I did not expect a miracle. I would have been happy to prevent further damage to my already wrinkled neck. After using Clientele Neck Envy a couple of weeks I noticed that my neck was looking pretty good. Within a month I could see a dramatic, and I do mean DRAMATIC, difference!

Thank you for your help! Here is my photo.
Sincerely,

Diana

Beauty from the inside out™

The Importance of Combining Supplements with Skincare

What's the secret to maintaining healthy hair, nails, & radiant, supple skin?

Genetics play a large role in the appearance of our skin as we age. One of the biggest contributors to loss of suppleness and skin damage is the sun. However, we can increase our defenses against this damage, as well as the effects of aging, with a good nutritional regimen.

You get all the key nutrients you need for a healthy, youthful lifestyle, plus plenty of cutting-edge antioxidants to protect your skin from free radical damage caused by beauty begins from within™ Daily Nutrient Supplements exposure to the environment, sunlight, smoking, and natural metabolism. If unchecked, excessive free radical damage contributes to wrinkling. To maintain healthy new tissue, the body needs protein. In the formula you will find all the key B vitamins to help your body metabolize protein and carbohydrates, too.

NEW UPDATES:

Morning Nutrients

Wake up your skin's defenses with Green Tea Extract in the Morning Nutrients. The Polyphenol Antioxidants in tea help protect the skin from sun damage both in our skin care formulas and from within. And now, we've put the antioxidant and anti-inflammatory powers of Green Tea in every dose of Morning Nutrients for healthy, supple, radiant skin. Plus, you get Vitamin C, which is vital to maintaining connective tissue and collagen - and Silica for healthy skin, hair, and nails. Start your day out healthy, from the inside out, with Morning Nutrients.

Evening Nutrients

Now you will find MSM (methylsulfonylmethane) in the Evening Nutrients to help you feel your 'young' self during the day! MSM is a naturally occurring sulfur compound in the body. MSM helps support the function and health of connective tissues, which is important in maintaining healthy skin and joint function so you feel your best! Also, no nutritional supplement is complete unless it helps address your overall well-being. That's why we've added key nutrients you need to maintain healthy cardiovascular function, energy, immunity and antioxidant defenses. You'll find the latest state of the art ingredients like L-Carnitine; Alpha Lipoic Acid, Grape Seed Extract and our patented, age-defying Sacred Lotus Seed.

Mineral Complex

Updated for a beautiful smile! Our Mineral Complex nourishes your body with multiple sources of Calcium, including Coral Calcium for its many trace elements. You benefit from 1000 mg. of Calcium per day taking the Daily Nutrients. Plus, you get Magnesium essential to hundreds of metabolic reactions in the body and Vitamin D3 needed for strong bones, teeth, colon health, and immune function. Now you can smile as you enjoy greater benefits from head to toe, with Clientele's new Daily Nutrients.

The NEWLY UPDATED Daily AM/PM Nutrients for wellness, energy & immune system protection.

The Science of Youth Elixir.

Youth Elixir's key component is its proprietary blend of amino acids, antioxidants and phytonutrients that address aging. The formula features a unique health-promoting BioCell Protectors™ System. The System includes Soy Isoflavones to support healthy bones and heart; Antioxidants and Detoxifiers to protect cells; and a nutrient called Alpha GPC, a brain-function building block. It also contains patented Lotus Complex from the seed that can defy aging and live for 1,000 years due to its natural protein repair enzyme!

2-Part / Youth Elixir System:

PART 1: Easy-to-Take Youth Elixir Tabs

Effervesce in water, creating a delicious sparkling drink, which provides nutrients & gentle youth enhancing amino acids.

PART 2: Youth Elixir Cream

Helps diminish the appearance of fine lines and wrinkles by up to 50%! Contains plant estrogens and vital enzymes to nourish and protect skin.
